2. Read the speech bubbles A and B.

What do the sentences mean?

Why are there two hats with sentence B?

Check your answers on the next page.

3. Are you ready for the “sporting hat challenge?”

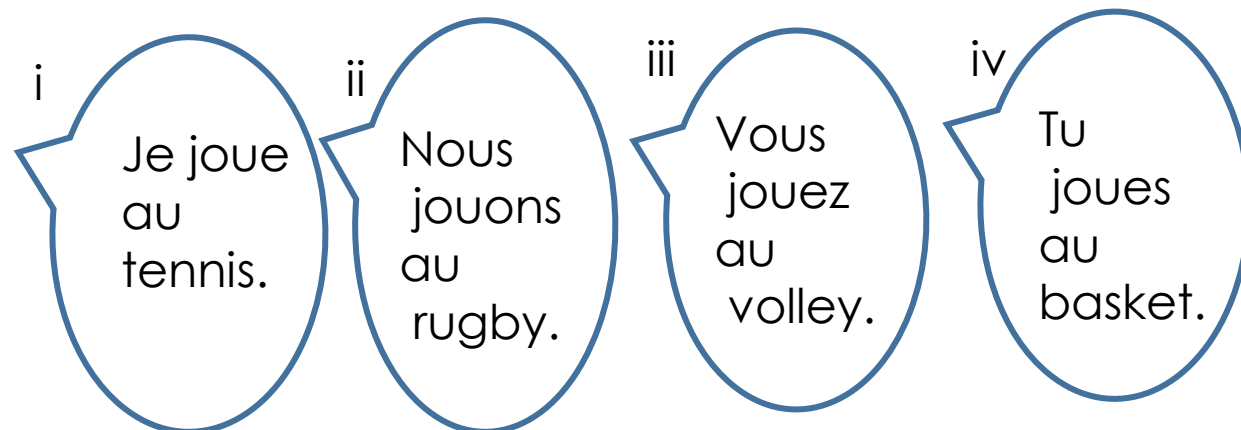

Read the French sentences.

Decide if it’s one person or more playing the sport.

Write out the sentences in French in your books.

Draw ONE hat or TWO hats at the end of the sentence, to show if this is one or more than one person playing the sport.

Write out the sentence underneath in English and draw a symbol for the sport.

4. Extra challenge! Write two sports sentences of your own in French, explain in English and draw the sport.
