How to Promote
Your Book with
Diane Hinds
(adults)
Thursday 15th June 7pm,
Widnes Library,
Free, booking
required via the library website or in person at
Widnes Library

“How to Promote Your Book” is a talk aimed at empowering the aspiring, small or self-published writer and shows them how to put together a basic campaign. The talk guides writers through the process of devising their personalised campaigns, with comprehensive information regarding research, targeting the audience, creating the key message, as well as writing a press release and learning about distribution. Writers will learn how to achieve these elements in an affordable way, delivering to the public sound public relations through a well-thought-out campaign.

Joseph, 1917: A talk by author
David Hewitt, (adults)
Thursday 29th June 6.30-7.30pm
Halton Lea Library, £2 including refreshments
Book online via the library
website or in person at Halton
Lea Library

David's book is the 'secret history' of Joseph Blackburn, a man who didn't want to go to war – but was forced to by a Westminster tribunal and who died on the Western Front. Set in Thornton Cleveleys, this compelling read explores the moral and legal complexities of Joseph's story. Using the original source material of newspaper articles and legal records, David has written a thrilling and thought provoking account of Joseph's forgotten story and raises an interesting question – if you put a man in harm's way then realise you made a mistake, shouldn't you at least try to make amends?

Copies of Joseph, 1917 will be available to purchase on the evening.

Summer Reading
Challenge Launch
(children & families)
Monday 17th July

The Reading Agency and libraries are delighted to present the 2017 Summer Reading Challenge, Animal Agents - a whole host of clever creatures, ready to solve all kinds of crimes! This band of furry, slippery and feathered friends is specially trained to use their skills and natural instincts to unravel mysteries – with a huge helping of fun along the way.

Read six books over the summer and receive fun prizes and stickers along the way. If you complete the challenge a special medal and certificate will be sent to your school!

Come and sign up at Halton Libraries for the most exciting children's reading event of the year!
