Poetry word cloud

This word cloud is made from the words of a poem by William Blake.

Read the words and then answer the questions below.

Can you find any words that rhyme?

Are there any words that you don't know the meaning of? What do you think they might mean?

Can you sort the words into groups? Why have you sorted them in this way?

What images do the words create in your mind?

Why do you think the words are different sizes?

What do you think this poem is about?

Use the words to write your own lines of poetry.
