

Understand

Rewrite these sentences, adding a relative clause to each one.

John ate his chips hungrily.

Holly goes to gymnastics club.

The bookshop was empty.

Yesterday was a long day.

Tia's room is at the top of the house.

15-Minute Relative Clause Challenge!

Challenge

Look at this picture. Write 3 sentences about it using a relative clause in each one.

Test

Tick one box to show which part of each sentence is a relative clause.

The car	which was very old was difficult to start on cold mornings.

Alan	who is very kind
helped me to tidy my room.

I don't like the cat
that is always making noise outside our house.

Underline the relative clauses in these sentences.

My uncle, who will be eighty this year, still jogs every day.

Sunil lives at the end of the street which is close to the bus stop.

Tick all of the sentences which include a relative clause.

- ☐ The curry that was too spicy made Jim's mouth hurt.
- ☐ Mr. Turner was lost because he had forgotten his map.
- ☐ Mary, who had been feeling unwell, was not at school today.
- ☐ We were all thirsty until we bought some squash.

Explain

Explain in your own words what a relative clause is.

day.

e

.

urt.

map.

nool today.

Apply

Write a passage about this picture. Use two relative clauses in your writing.

Extra challenge:

Can you include a fronted adverbial in one of your sentences?

[illegible]