

Orange words

- 1 Take turns to read the words. (If you need a quick reminder of what Orange words are, check p.16.)

develop determined familiar definite awkward persuade

- 2 Circle the part or parts of each word you might find hard to spell. Discuss with your partner how you will remember to spell these words.
- 3 Complete the script using the correct words from the box above.

Professor: I am here to p_____ you to sell my marvellous invention in your shop.

Businesswoman: I must say you seem very d_____ to make it a success.

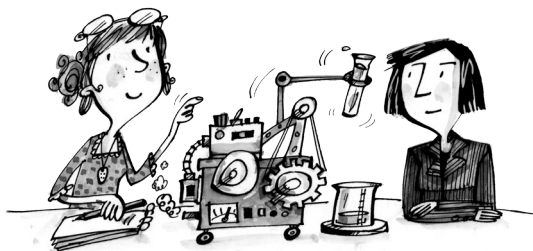

Professor: Yes. It has taken me many years to d_____.

Businesswoman: Well, before I make a d_____ decision, I need to see what it is.

The professor reveals her marvellous invention.

Businesswoman: Oh dear. That looks f_____.

I am in a rather a _____ position. Someone has already invented it, Professor. I have 400 in my shop already!

- 4 Which two words from the box above do you think are the hardest to spell?

- 5 Write a sentence using both of the words.
